

Year 5...In brief!

Golden names...

5B – Oliver K and Loui 5BA – Miranda and Joel
5M – Katie and Noah 5E – Silke and Tia
5HR – Max and Francesca

English: Imitation

- To use speech correctly and effectively in my writing
- To identify the features of a suspense story
- To write in the same tense throughout
- To describe people, place and setting

Maths: Division

- To be able to read analogue and digital clocks effectively
- To work out durations of time
- To convert between measures of time
- To solve problems linked to time

Curriculum updates:

IPC – What a wonderful World
(Sustainability of the Environment)
Science - Living processes
PSHE/P4C – Dilemmas and decisions/assertive behaviours
R.E – Pilgrimage-Christian
P.E – Circuit training
French – Items of Clothing
Computing – Python programming

What a Wonderful World Entry Point:

On Tuesday and Wednesday, Year 5 had their entry point activity for our new IPC topic. The children became explorers and travelled all over the world looking at different volcanoes and earthquakes.

They learnt about key vocabulary that is associated with volcanoes and earthquakes, using drama to help them understand the terminology.

It was a great activity, and the children learnt a lot!

